WELLNESS

All bathtubs, either the retro-look freestanding version or any of the built-in options with or without soft-air massage and water chromotherapy, have been carefully designed to allow you to unwind and relax. Special attention has been paid to ergonomics and comfort while providing at the same time the luxurious touch to any bathroom with the exclusive finishes and sophisticated details. The importance of flexibility and the element of 'made-to-measure' is also evident for example in the extra-fine resin shower trays, presented in unique textures and finishes.
